Translate the sentences below into Spanish. Remember to choose the correct verb ser or estar. Do not forget to conjugate it correctly and check for agreement.

1. The boy is tall.
   ______________________________________________________

2. The man is from Ecuador.
   ______________________________________________________

3. Maria is smart and athletic.
   ______________________________________________________

4. The pencil is red.
   ______________________________________________________

5. They are Nick’s book and pencil.
   ______________________________________________________

6. We are Americans.
   ______________________________________________________

7. The paper is in the desk.
   ______________________________________________________

8. Mike feel okay.
   ______________________________________________________

9. They are teachers.
   ______________________________________________________

10. Ana is in art class.
    _____________________________________________________